When Can a Release of Assets be Used?

If there is no prior administration, a release from administration may be filed as per the following:

1. The decedent's assets are $35,000 or less, the date of death is on or after 11/9/94, and there is no surviving spouse, or the spouse is not the sole heir at law or under a Will.
2. The decedent's assets are $100,000 or less, the date of death is on or after 3/18/99, and there is a surviving spouse who receives the entire estate. The spouse must be entitled to receive the entire estate under Section 2105.06 and/or Section 2106.13 of the Revised Code.

For other dates of death and asset limits prior to 1999, see Form 5.0.

Any party may file the Application. However, the Applicant may not necessarily be entitled to receive all or any part of the decedent's assets merely because they filed the Application.

Applications are reviewed by hearing officers and distribution is by law, regardless of the filing party.

Typed or Printed Forms

All forms should be typed or legibly printed. Documents may be rejected by Clerks pursuant to Local Rule 57 if the handwriting or document content is not readable.

Notice to Estate Recovery Program

Applicants may need to send notice to the State of Ohio Medicaid Estate Recovery Program. Failure to send notice, if required, will delay your estate proceedings. See Form 5.0 and check the box on the front side of the form indicating whether notice to Medicaid is required or not.

Payment and Refunds

The Court accepts cash, credit or debit cards, cashier checks or money orders for payment.

Self-Represented parties are encouraged to consult with a probate attorney prior to filing and making payment. Parties who file at Probate Court without legal representation undertake the risk that their filings may not be the correct legal proceeding for their circumstances. Incorrect filings may result in legal decisions that are unintended and contrary to their expected result.

There is no refund for incorrect filings.
